a'u gwesteion-and guests :

Cai Isfryn

"Cai Isfryn, one of GYWM'S students, has just completed his studies at the RNCM - passing with flying colours, and as well as making a name for himself as a highly respected cornet and trumpet player, has also won new admirers for his compositional output too".

Mathew Hall

"In 2008, Mathew was appointed associate composer in residence with Tredegar Town Band. His work has been performed all over the UK, Northern Europe, Scandinavia and Australia, one of the leading young composers writing for this forward

Peter Meechan

"Peter Meechan is a tremendous composer, full of fresh and innovative ideas...His work is technically accomplished and musically liberated with influences as diverse as the Brecker Brothers and Ennio Morricone to Messiaen and Miles Davis."
